

Lodging

Sorìa Sky Lounge, an infinite panorama

di: Redazione

21 april 2016

Soria Sky Lounge, an infinite panorama

Firriato Winery

On the hill overlooking the vineyards and olive groves of the Baglio Soria Resort & Wine Experience lays the viewpoint of the Soria Sky Lounge where it is possible to admire the beauty of the surrounding area. On clear days you are easily able to see a large part of the most western coast of Sicily from the Stagnone lagoon, with the islands of Lunga and Mozia facing Marsala, to Mount Erice with its medieval village. At the centre of this magnificent view are the Egadi Islands, with Favignana and Levanzo in the foreground, and the island of Marettimo in the background. The panoramic viewpoint of the Soria Sky Lounge is the ideal location to sit and contemplate the Trapanese countryside and its wonders, while sipping a glass of Firriato wine and enjoying the Mediterranean sea-breeze. Comfortably ensconced in the lounge overlooking the sea, watching the sunset over the white salt pans and Egadi islands, in the magical evening twilight, guests can choose their favourite aperitif, from a glass of Firriato wine, to one of the innovative and sought-after cocktails from the Mixologist's menu—a selection of Firriato wines mixed with exotic essences — or a classic aperitif from the Italian or international tradition.

The wine bar

The Baglio Soria Belvedere wine bar is place which inspires wonder. Its location is already a spectacle in and of itself, especially as it heads towards evening, when it cools off and the lights begin to twinkle painting an enchanting picture from the city of Trapani to the Stagnone lagoon of Marsala. The careful choice of furnishings is in keeping with those of the accommodation facilities. Every detail seems to have been considered in order to leave you with a lasting impression of the location's charm. The open view of the panorama is food for the soul, something which deserves to be celebrated, whether alone or in company, by raising your wine glasses or sipping on a superb cocktail from the menu created by the Firriato Mixologist. The Wine Bar is also the perfect place to get a complete 365° experience of the world of wine and to enjoy wine together with other experiences thanks to theme evenings dedicated to international wine producers and prestigious spirits.

Firriato Hospitality

Firriato Hospitality

Firriato Hospitality

